We're getting ready to fly to Fairfax tomorrow to spend Christmas with our daughter and her family — We will fly back on the 26th — Their baby-sitter will be gone for a few days - so we will baby sit the 3 children while Bob + Barb work - Part of that time the kids will be in school - so it won't be too bad —

We hope) that both of you have been reasonably healthy —

Surprisingly this past JFK anniversary was relatively quiet — Jim did not have too many jerks festering him — Right now so many people are more interested in O.J. — JFK is past tense —

Here's hoping that Christmastime

brings you a season

full of happiness.

Jim + Tammi Lavelle

Best wishes to both of you
